

THE NATIONAL DevOps CONFERENCE

18th–19th June 2019
The British Museum, London

Practical Presentations | Workshops | Networking | Exhibitions

The National DevOps Conference is the essential yearly event for all DevOps professionals. Taking place over two learning-packed days, this conference is ideal for anyone aligned with DevOps and DevOps practices. It's a fantastic opportunity to network, learn, share advice and keep up-to-date with the latest industry trends – essential for staff improvement!

Staff improvement, inspiration and learning, leads to company improvement.

For any staff member, sessions built around DevOps culture, DevOps topics and practical developments will make this conference extremely valuable. You can see the complete schedule online at DevOpsEvent.com, so please take a moment to consider the programme and determine which elements will benefit your company most.

SUMMARY OF BENEFITS:

- This conference is a small investment in time/money but a large one in empowering staff and others involved in DevOps functions to do even more
- The sessions will provide your staff with increased knowledge of best practices within your industry, and this knowledge will enable you to handle your projects and/or clients with greater skill, professionalism and confidence, which will reflect favourably on the company
- Staff who attend will also be able to pass on information and learnings to co-workers. Ask them to give a presentation or report on what they have learned afterwards!
